The Long Island Guitar Festival

The Long Island Guitar Festival is an annual international festival presented by the Department of Music of the School of Visual and Performing Arts at the C.W. Post Campus of Long Island University. The Festival represents Long Island University's commitment to reach out to the artistic community and to continue an established tradition of excellence in guitar performance and pedagogy.

The Long Island Guitar Festival presents master classes, concerts and workshops given by the world's most outstanding guitarists and teachers. Workshop topics have included Computer Music Notation for Guitarists, Composers and Arrangers, High School Guitar Ensemble, Fingerboard Harmony and Chamber Music. Special events have included the "Legacy of Segovia" with Segovia protégé Michael Lorimer, the U.S. debut of renowned guitarist/composer Carlo Domeniconi, C.W. Post alumni concerts and world premiere performances.

The festival has established partnerships with area schools, including Greenwich High School, the United Nations International School and Suffolk Community College.
